Psalm

Psalm 104

Peter Hallock

Oh Lord how manifold are your works!
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great. Antiphon

All of them look to you to give them their food in due season.

You give it to them; they gather it;
you open your hand and they are filled with good things. Antiphon

You hide your face, and they are terrified;
you take away their breath; and they die and return to their dust.

You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;
and so you renew the face of the earth. Antiphon

May the glory of the Lord endure for ever;
may the Lord rejoice and all his works.

May these words of mine please him;
I will rejoice in the Lord. Antiphon

Second Reading

A reading from Romans 8:22-27

Reader

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

All

Thanks be to God.

The musical score is written for a unison voice part. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like. The lyrics are arranged in three parts, with the first part starting on the first staff and the second and third parts starting on the second and third staves respectively. The fourth staff contains the final lines of the hymn, which are repeated three times for different parts of the congregation (might, sign, pare).

Presider

We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water.
Over water the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation.
Through water you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise.
In water your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection,
from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of baptism.
In it we are buried with Christ in his death.
By it we share in his resurrection.
Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit.
Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son,
we celebrate our fellowship in him in faith.

We pray that all who have passed through the water of baptism may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Saviour.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be all honour and glory, now and for ever.

All

Amen.

Presider

Dear friends, through the paschal mystery
we have been buried with Christ in baptism, so that we may rise with him to a new life.
As we celebrate the baptism of Jesus,
let us renew the promises we made in baptism,
when we rejected Satan and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his holy catholic Church.

Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

All

I do.

Presider

Do you believe in God the Father?

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Presider

All

Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

God the creator, the rock of our salvation, has given us new birth by water and the Holy Spirit,

May he keep us faithful to our calling,
now and for ever.

All

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider

Eternal God, Source of all being, we give you thanks and praise for your faithful love.
You call us into friendship with you and one another to be your holy people, a sign of your presence in the world.
When those we trust betray us, unfailingly you remain with us.
When we injure others, you confront us in your love and call us to the paths of righteousness.
You stand with the weak, and those, broken and alone, whom you have always welcomed home, making the first last, and the last first.
Therefore we raise our voices with angels and archangels, forever praising you and singing:

Presider

Blessed are you, O Holy One:
when Hagar was driven into the wilderness you followed her and gave her hope.
When Joseph was sold into bondage, you turned malice to your people's good.
When you called Israel out of slavery, you brought them through the wilderness into the promised land.
When your people were taken into exile you wept with them by the river of Babylon and carried them home.
Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

All

Presider

At the right time you sent your Anointed One to stand with the poor, the outcast, and the oppressed.
Jesus touched lepers, and the sick, and healed them.

He accepted water from a woman of Samaria and offered her the water of new life.
Christ knew the desolation of the cross and opened the way for all humanity into the redemption of your reconciling love.

On the night he was betrayed, Jesus, at supper with his friends, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, gave it to them, and said, “Take and eat: this is my body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you:
this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Loving and Holy One, recalling Christ’s death and resurrection, we offer you these gifts, longing for the bread of tomorrow and the wine of the age to come.
Therefore we proclaim our hope.

All
Dying you destroyed our death, rising you restored our life.
Lord Jesus, come in glory.

Presider
Pour out your Spirit on these gifts that through them you may sustain us in our hunger for your peace.
We hold before you all whose lives are marked by suffering, our sisters and brothers.
When we are broken and cast aside, embrace us in your love.

All
Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

Presider
Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, O Source of all life, now and for ever.
All
Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Cantor

As our Sa-viour Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All

Our Fa-ther in hea-ven, hal-lowed be your Name, your king-dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea-ven.

Give us to-day our dai-ly bread.

For-give us our sins as we for-give those who sin a-gainst us.

Save us from the time of tri-al, and de-liv-er us from e-vil.

For the king-dom, the power, and the glo-ry are yours, now and for ev-er. A-men.

Easter Acclamation

Presider Lord, we died with you on the cross
All Now we are raised to new life.

Presider We were buried in your tomb.
All Now we share in your resurrection.

Presider Live in us, that we may live in you.
All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Presider Alleluia. The gifts of God for the people of God.
All Thanks be to God. Alleluia!

Share the Gifts

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in Communion.

If you are not physically receiving Communion, then offer this prayer:

In union, O God, with all your faithful people gathered wherever the eucharist is celebrated this day, I offer you praise and thanksgiving for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption given to us through the life, death and resurrection of Christ, and for the means of grace and the hope of glory.
I pray you come into my heart, my soul and my mind.
Let nothing separate me from you.
May I serve you in this life until, by your grace,
I come to your promised reign of justice and peace;
through Christ and in the unity of the Spirit. Amen.

While the communion is being administered, we respectfully ask that you keep the silence—this is a time for quiet prayer and meditation.
