Sequence Hymn

When Out of Poverty Is Born

Text: Kathryn Galloway (b. 1952)

Music: melody from English Country Songs 1893; harm. Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958) KINGSFOLD

1. When out of poverty is born a dream that will not die, and landless, early folk find strength to stand with heads held high.
it's then we learn from those who wait to greet the promised day,
'The Lord is coming; don't lose heart.
Be blest; prepare the way!'

SOLO

2. When people wander far from God, forget to share their bread,
they find their wealth an empty thing,
their spirits are not fed.
For only just and tender love
the hungry soul will stay.
And so God's prophets echo still
'Be blest; prepare the way!'

ALL

3. When God took flesh and came to earth, the world turned upside down,
and in the strength of woman's faith
the Word of life was born.
She knew that God would raise the low,
it pleased her to obey.
Rejoice with Mary in the call,
'Be blest; prepare the way!'

The Apostle's Creed

Presider

Let us confess our faith, as we say,

All

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Presider Dear friends in Christ,
God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;
welcoming sinners and inviting us to this table.
Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your name. Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider

God of all creation,

All

all you have made is good,

and your love endures forever.

You bring forth bread from the earth and fruit from the vine.

Nourish us with these gifts,

so that we might be for the world

signs of your gracious presence in Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider

All

And also with you.

Presider

Lift up your hearts.

All

We lift them up to God.

Presider

Let us give thanks to God our Creator.

All

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider

Holy God, Lover of creation,

we give you thanks and praise for in the ocean of your steadfast love you bear us and place the song of your Spirit in our hearts.

When we turn from your love and defile the earth,

you do not abandon us.

Your Spirit speaks through Huldah and Micah,

through prophets, sages, and saints in every age,

to confront our sin and reveal the vision of your new creation.

Joining in the song of the universe

we proclaim your glory singing:

Sanctus

Franz Schubert

Adapted by Richard Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might. —

— Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord, God of pow'r and might. —

— Hea-ven and earth are full, — full — of your glo -

— Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est. dim.

Presider

Gracious God,
in the fullness of time you sent Jesus the Christ to share our fragile humanity.
Through Jesus' life, death, and resurrection
you open the path from brokenness to health, from fear to trust, from pride and conceit to reverence for you.

Rejected by a world
that could not bear the Gospel of life, Jesus knew death was near.
His head anointed for burial
by an unknown woman,
Jesus gathered together those who loved him.
He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it and gave it to his friends,
saying, "Take and eat:

this is my body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave you thanks, and said “Drink this all of you,
this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many.
Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me.”
And now we gather at this table in response to his commandment,
to share the bread and cup of Christ’s undying love,
and to proclaim our faith.

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Presider

Breathe your Holy Spirit,
the wisdom of the universe,
upon these gifts that we bring to you:
this bread, this cup, ourselves, our souls and bodies, that we may be signs of your love for all the world and ministers of your transforming purpose.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory is yours, Creator of all,
and we bless your holy name forever.

All

Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Presider

All

As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,
our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Presider Creator of all,
you gave us golden fields of wheat, whose many grains we have gathered and made into this one bread.

All* So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

Presider The gifts of God for the people of God.

All* Thanks be to God.

Share the Gifts

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in Communion.

While the communion is being administered, we respectfully ask that you keep the silence —this is a time for quiet prayer and meditation.

Healing Prayer is offered at the 10:30am Sunday Eucharist. Because of the close proximity of the prayer team members and the person requesting prayer, you are asked to wear a mask. Prayer teams will be located in the west alcove. Please make your way up the ramp to the alcove after you have received communion, and present your prayer request to the team members. If you are not receiving Healing Prayer, you are asked to refrain from entering the Alcove at this time, in order to safeguard privacy.

can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

Cathedral Summer Festival of Sacred Music

August 7 - Pure Polyphony

Featuring the music of Palestrina, with members & friends of the Cathedral Choir

August 14 - Ave Maria, Gratia Plena

Honouring the Feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary, with soloist Chelsea Numanga

August 21 - Precious Lord, Take my Hand

Featuring the magnificent sounds of soloist Marcus Mosely

August 28 - Song of Songs

Vocal music of the Franco-Flemish composer - Johannes de Lymburgia

This Sunday through to Sept 4th, we continue with our Cathedral Summer Festival of Sacred Music. We are now giving the Cathedral Choir their usual 4-week (well deserved) summer break. However, many of them will be continuing to sing this month for two very important weddings: Helen and Andi on Saturday August 20th, as well as Felix Moser & Irene Pang's blessing of their marriage Saturday August 27th. Both weddings offer a huge variety of interesting repertoire, keeping us on our vocal and mental "toes!"

For the music today, we welcome soloist Chelsea Numanga. Originally from New Zealand, Chelsea moved to Vancouver in May of last year. She has sung in several secular choirs over the last 20 years, including school choirs, regional choirs, one 3 year cycle of the NZ Secondary Students Choir, and 3 cycles of the NZ Youth Choir. She later continued her vocal studies at the university level in an opera program. Regarding sacred choirs, she sang in her College Chapels both in high school and in my university Hall; she also helped out with her parent's church choir over the years. More recently she was a member of the Schola Choir at Old St Patrick's Basilica in New York. She joined the Cathedral choir very recently at the beginning of June this year. For the music today, I had also booked our dear friend and superb oboe player - Erin Marks. Unfortunately she contracted COVID last Tuesday, so will not be able to join. I already booked her for Sunday Sept 4th.
